Is your family different from each other because of your beliefs? Well here's a family that's like that. Amber and Max are different because Amber trust here heart, and Max doesn't want to lose his family. In the story Amber Brown Sees Red Amber doesn't like the fact that Max might marry Amber's mom. When Max and Amber's mom are hanging out Amber hates it. Furthermore, Max likes the fact that he might fall in love with ambers mom. On the other hand, Amber doesn't like Max that much but on the inside she likes Max a little. That's why Amber and Max are different because Amber trusts her heart, and Max doesn't want to lose this family.

Amber doesn't like the fact that Max might marry Amber's mom. In the story Amber Brown Sees Red Max was eating dinner with Amber's mom. Amber was worried that this was a sigh of marriage. Furthermore, when Ambers mom was frustrated about something, Max had to comb her down. What would I do if I were Amber.... Well if I were Amber I would care if Max was my dad because he's a nice guy and my other dad would be living in France, so I would want another dad. But that's just my opinion. Also I don't think that Amber will ever get over that she doesn't like the fact that Max might marry Amber's mom.

Max likes the fact that he might fall in love with Amber's mom. In the story Amber Brown Sees Red there was a skunk in the school; Max came, pick her up, and drove her home. Save us! Save us! "Kids on the bus yell out the window." Help! We're being held captive because of skunks!"(Danziger, page 32) I wonder what I would do if I were Max? If I were Max I would be grateful to. I would also do all I can because I wouldn't want to lose a good family like Ambers. All in all, Max should like the fact that he might have a good family with Amber and her mom.

Even though Amber says she doesn't like Max Amber still tries to like him. For example, in the story Amber Brown Sees Red. "Max is a great coach, He helps, He's fun, He's not too strict, but he's strict enough. (Danziger, page 110) For instance, when Amber and Max were shopping and playing a basket ball cart game where they get the object and throw it in the shopping cart. All in all, if I were Amber I would be like that too because I don't know if Max is good or bad but I still want a strong dad like Max.

In summary these are the reasons why Amber and Max are different because Amber trusts her heart, and Max doesn't want to lose this family. One reason is because Amber doesn't like the fact that Max might marry Amber's mom. In addition, Max likes the fact that he might fall in love with Amber's mom. Furthermore, Amber doesn't like Max but on the inside she does like Max. Therefore, these are the reasons why Amber and Max are different because Amber trusts her heart and Max doesn't want to lose this family.
