Introduction

This story is about a boy in the holocaust named Felix. The holocaust was a time in 1933, where the German Nazis captured Jews from multiple country's and held them in camps to work, kill, and make their life miserable. The Jewish people didn't do anything, however Adolf Hitler had only one reason to kill the Jews, and that was that he thought that they lost WW I for Germany. It wasn't even a good reason but Hitler did it anyway. In this story you will experience the life of a boy in a concentration camp. Losing friends to the Nazis, getting beaten by the Nazis, even discrimination of Jews from the Nazis. You'll experience all of this. The journey of a lifetime, FELIX's JOURNAL.

Hello journal,

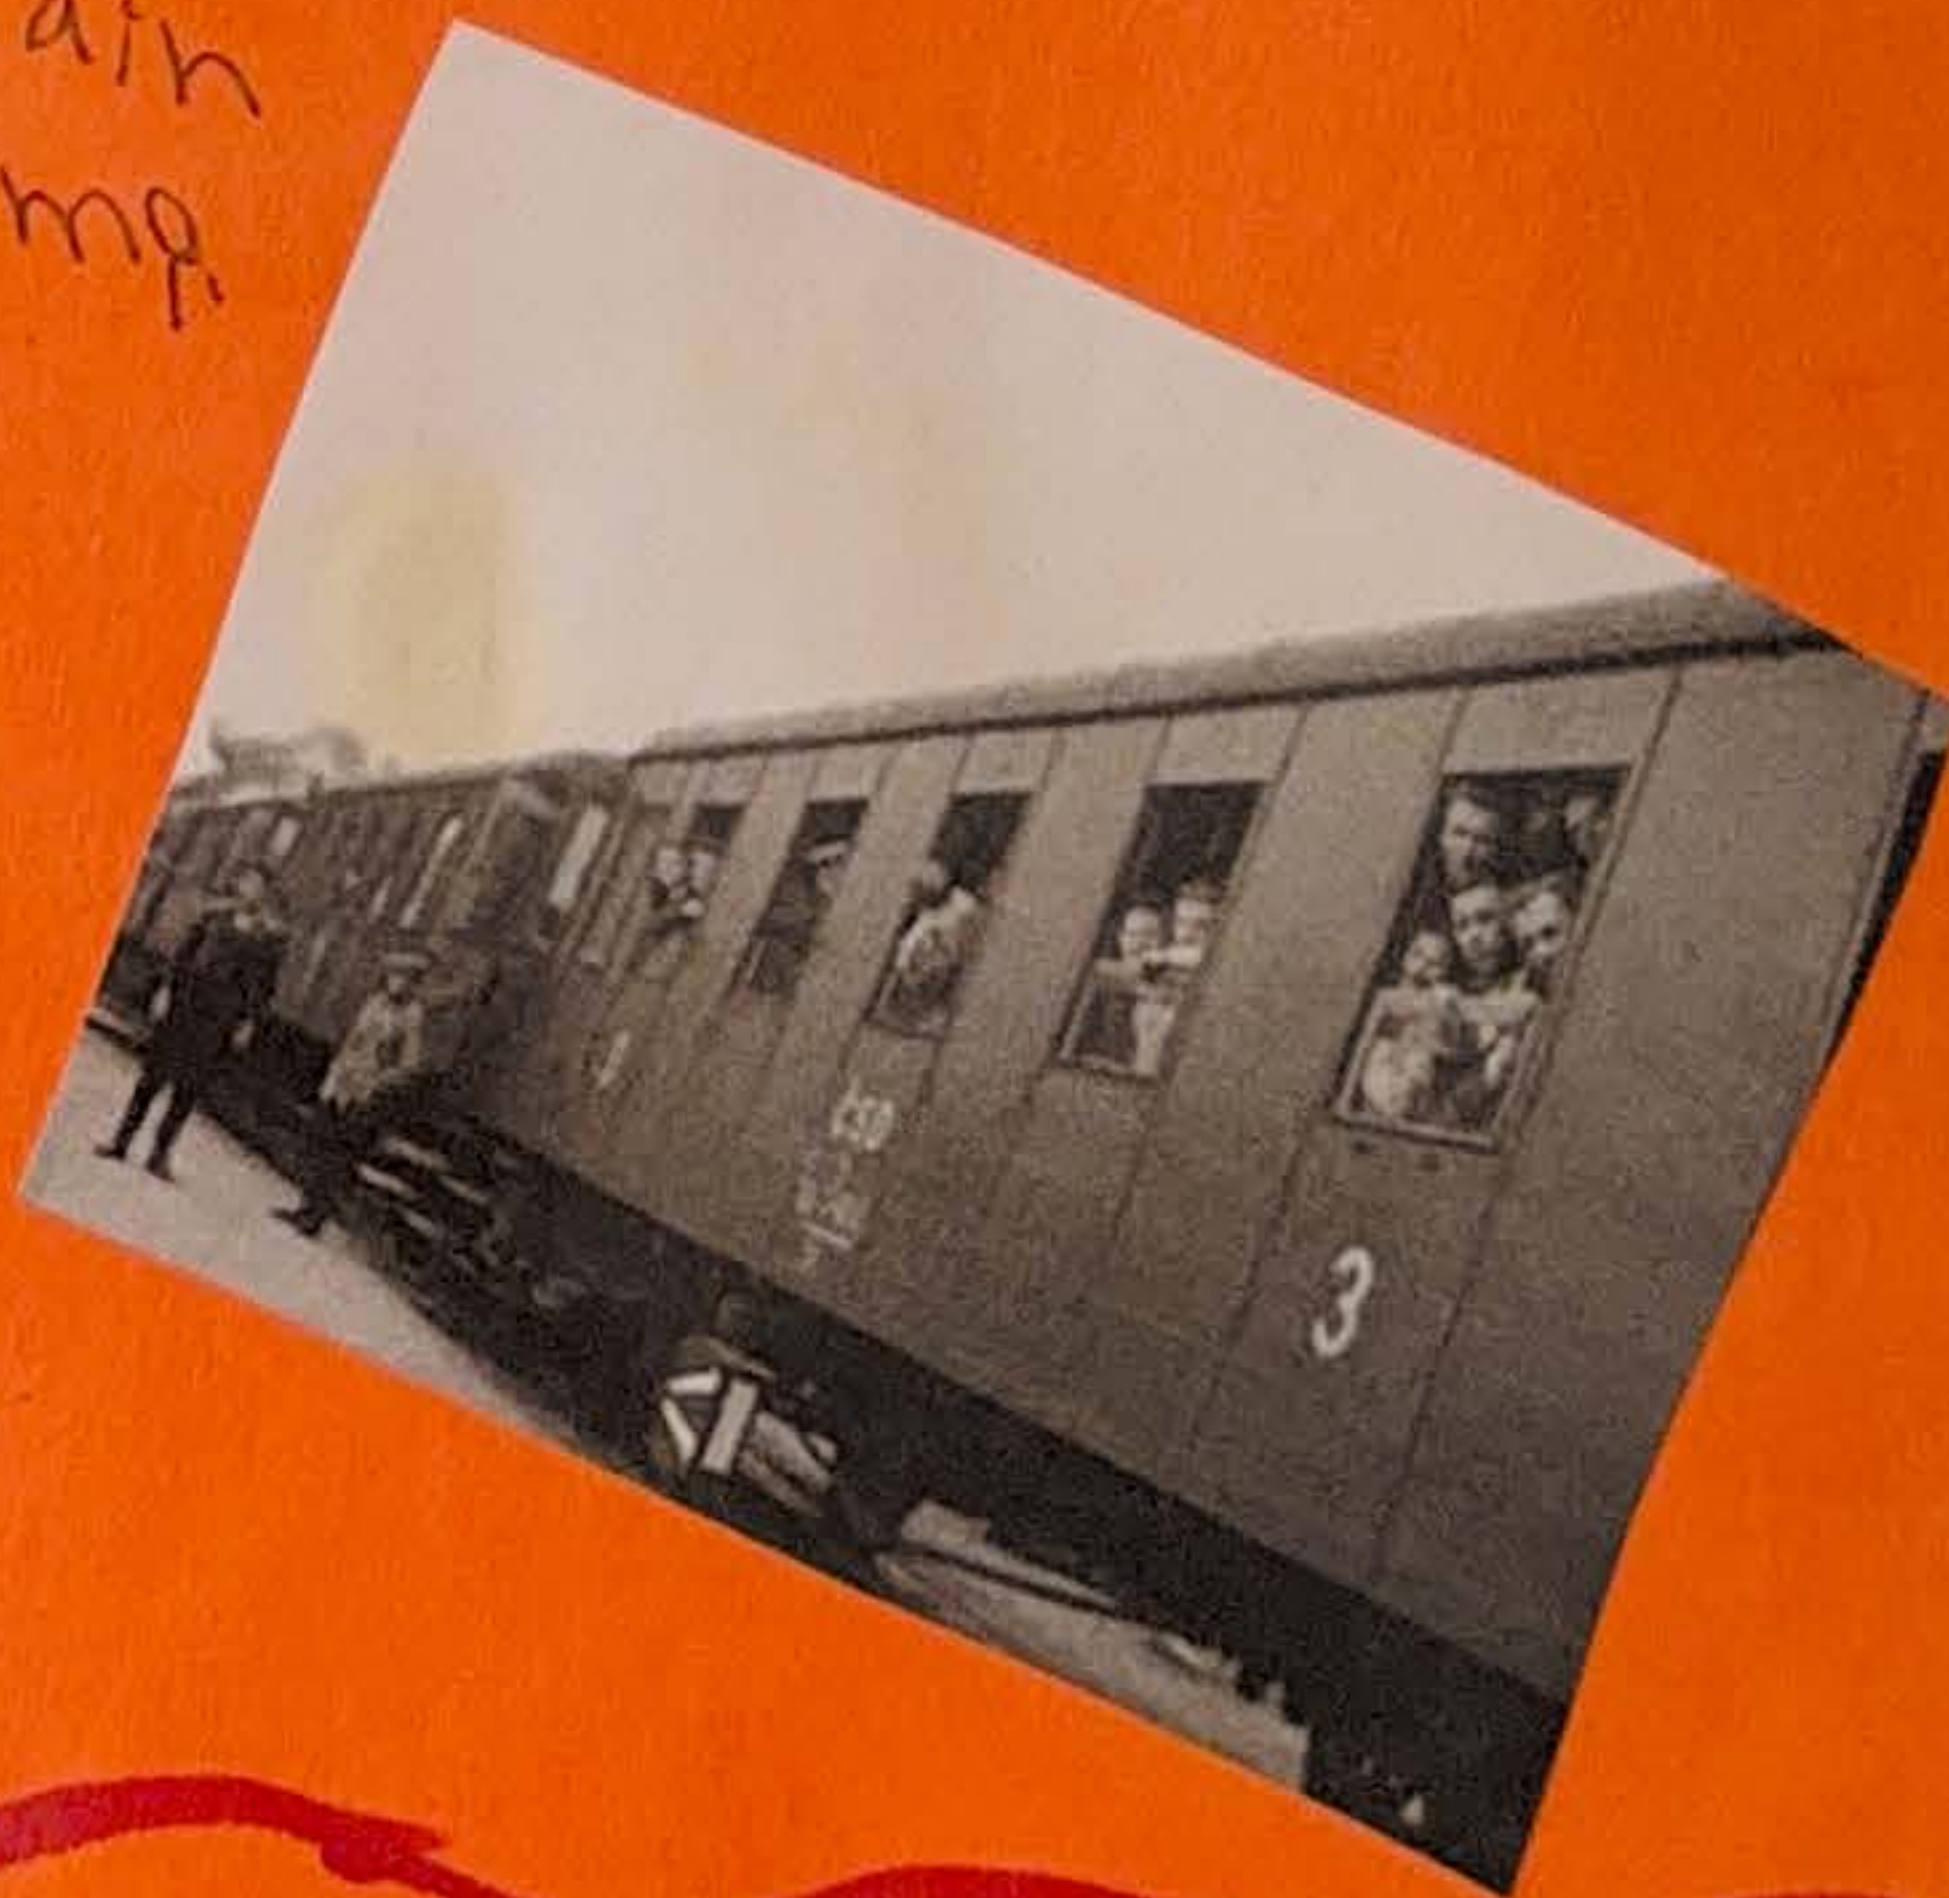

I guess this is my first entry. My Mum gave me this journal; she said to write my feelings in it. I have a lot on my mind right now. Like when my mum gave me this journal she cried and kissed me and said goodbye forever. I do not know why she would say to me goodbye forever. Everyone knows summer camp is only a couple of weeks. She probably just feels inside that I will be gone forever because she loves me and cannot leave me. My mum should have come with me. Anyway, I will miss my mum but I will be fine since I am with my friend Samuel. He is my best friend. My mum told me to stick with him. Another neat thing I noticed was there were many strong men with guns. They were our own personal bodyguards at the camp. They were yelling a lot at people. Probably to tell them to get ready for the trip. Other people were crying, probably of excitement for this camp. After that, we went on a big truck with a cage. I think it was for people so they would not fall out. It seemed a little strange but it was okay.

Day 3

We passed through the gates to the main camp. It looks nothing like the brochure. I just arrived at the camp and all we do is work. Samuel and I sleep together on a hard stone bunk. Once in a while one of the other kids will be ripped down from the bunk and beaten with a whip. It happened to me once and now I have three slashes down my back. I am starting to get suspicious about this camp. I want to come back home. Samuel and I haven't been able to sleep the past few nights because the man in the next bunk was coughing. I found out that he has bronchitis. Last night I heard Samuel coughing. I think he might be sick.

Day 6

Today when we were in the cafeteria a Nazi came in and yelled, "Juden raus!" I'm not sure what it means but when he said it he was pointing a gun at us, so I sort of got a clue. I am starting to put things together. I have made this dictionary to help me to understand what the Nazi's are saying.

Nothing

NAZI WORDS

- Vulk - you (they point at you)
- End lueing - End, or final (has end in front of word).
- Sudrbhnublg - Special (points at some people, maybe special)
- Heil Hitten - Hitler, is a leader, and master.
- Babbyar - a place (bad place, do not want to go there)
- Block - can't go
- Aushwitz - name of camp
- Jude's Raus - Jews get out
- Haftling - prisoner

Day 7

Samuel is getting sicker and sicker each day. I am worried that he might die. I've been trying to stay away from him so I don't catch bronchitis. I sort of just mind my own business. "Be right back, I have to use the bathroom," Samuel said. I went back to my journal. I heard loud footsteps and I look up to see Samuel grab a pistol from the holster of one of the Nazi soldiers and point it at himself. I guess he can't take this camp anymore, or he just snapped! The Nazi pulled the gun out of Samuel's hand before he could pull the trigger. He threw Samuel to the ground and shot him in the head! I froze! I sobbed softly to myself so the soldiers would not get me next.

Hello journal,

Now without Samuel I feel very sad. He was my only close friend in this camp. The worst thing is that I even saw a poster keeping track that Samuel died, it is just horrible. Speaking of this camp, it is the worst. I thought it was going to be fun, but it stinks. Also I always see signs up having lines put through the Jewish star. I'm starting to wonder and think that these people must dislike Jewish people. I don't know why but they just seem to. I noticed this because of the strangest thing that happened to me. Right as I was about to complain about this camp to the boss, a man pulled me into a bush and covered my mouth while I was screaming. Once I calmed down, he told me that his name was Fredrick and he is good, and he was going to help me. He told me the rulers of this camp were called Nazis. He said they were cold blooded killers, and that this camp was a prison. He said if I complained to the Nazis, they would shoot me. He then told me that he would help me and then ran away. I don't know what this man Fredrick meant by "help me" but I now think I may be in trouble.

Hello journal,

Now that I have spent more time with Fredrick, I have realized that he himself is a Nazi. However he now says to me that he was once a Nazi, and now is against them. He is going undercover as a Nazi but is really a good person. Again today I have found another poster that says there is a Nazi traitor. That is Fredrick, so whenever I find one of those posters, I steal them and then rip them up. This camp is just getting worse. The worst though is the food. I can't stand the molded bread for breakfast, the little soup for lunch, and the same little soup (not even very good) from before. I wanted to get out of the camp so bad, and that's why I was happy when Fredrick gave me an escape map out of this horrible camp. That night I quietly walked out of the camp. I found the empty cabins I needed to go to, and then found the broken factories. Through there I quietly walked out to the rail station all the way to train C. When I walked in excited to see Fredrick, I found him on the ground with a Nazi pointing a gun to his head. However, I came in so quietly no one saw me. There on the floor I saw a gun from Fredrick. I picked up the gun. Then and there I had to make a decision. But then Fredrick yelled, "Now!" to me, and the Nazi started to turn around. But before he did, my hand pulled the trigger back, and then my life was changed forever.

Day 49

Hello journal,

I guess this is my last journal the train ride is almost over and in on my way back home. I'm looking forward to seeing my parent but when I left the camp Fredric said don't count on it. I'm still sad that Samuel has died I checked the schedule to see where this train is headed and it look like this train takes us to an airport to ~~in~~ Russia, to take a plane to America. I Think that's the only safe place.. I will have to leave this journal behind the only thing I'm bringing with me is a picture of Samuel and the bedtime story my mother used to read to me. For the next person that reed this Journal I give hope to you to end Hitler's wraith I'm sorry I have to end short but times is running out and I have to leave. Good bye and this is my story.
