I have no power and I can't get out of here bc of the stones power
But ur not contained by the fusion Tim you can get out
And I know how u will stop him

What do you mean, how?

If you get a hold of the power stone you can drain his powers and abilities
Then you must kill him and me along with me
There is no way to infuse since he has control he can only infuse us
So I must die to save humanity

But who will watch over the multiverses
You can't die

You Tim, you will be the next God
Once you get his powers into the stone you must absorb them into you
You are pure hearted Tim I can only trust you to carry on
